

JOIN THE 2013 PYTHON CHALLENGE™!

SIGN UP FOR THE COMPETITION TO HARVEST THE LONGEST AND THE MOST BURMESE PYTHONS.

You can win up to $1,500! Required online training, rules for the January 12 to February 10 competition, and the $25 registration are all available on PythonChallenge.org.

COME TO TWO EVENTS WHERE YOU CAN SEE LIVE CAPTIVE BURMESE PYTHONS:

- January 12 Kickoff at the University of Florida Fort Lauderdale Research and Education Center
- February 16 Awareness and Awards Event at Zoo Miami.

You will find out from experts how to identify, handle and harvest these giant snakes, and learn about the impact of this invasive species on south Florida's precious natural resources: the Everglades and its native wildlife.

THE FLORIDA FISH AND WILDLIFE CONSERVATION COMMISSION IS HOST OF THE 2013 PYTHON CHALLENGE™ AND WELCOMES YOUR PARTICIPATION in the first experience of its kind dedicated to raising awareness about the invasive Burmese python!
